INTRODUCTION

Established in 2004 by Daniel Barbera, BARBERA produce high quality Australian made and designed furniture. Based in Melbourne, our team of skilled artisans, technicians and designers use a range of classic materials such as marble, bronze, steel, leather and timber to forge a refined aesthetic. Designed for use in domestic and commercial architectural spaces, our product ethos is focused around intelligent design outcomes and process orientated workings; fusing old industrial techniques with modern technology and high craftsmanship.

We supply furniture for the Australian and international markets. Clients select from our product range with options to tailor materials and dimensions, then each piece is fabricated by our team of artisans that hand make our designs in our Melbourne-based factory. BARBERA create timeless designs with a focus on product longevity. Inspired by ancient civilisations, natural selection, and the desire to create objects that could last forever.

“We love what we create”

ZAPPA

COFFEE TABLE

A loud, bold, and playful individual, the Zappa coffee table is free and exciting. Never afraid to speak the truth, all is revealed the moment these tables are created. Completely unique, no two Zappa's can ever be made the same.

HALDANE

DINING

Forged from the overlooked and largely abandoned process of cast iron, the HALDANE table is a stubborn character. Fashioned exclusively in the historic metal, this iron individual is often found performing risky experiments in the name of science. Ever the pioneer, the HALDANE seemed to be the last to know all there is to be known.

HALDANE

COFFEE TABLE

Much like its bigger relatives, the HALDANE coffee table is known amongst its peers as a tenacious but undisciplined troublemaker. As with any great explorer, the HALDANE coffee table is not hindered by this tendency to go against the grain and instead uses this to its strength. Strength that is most likely a characteristic born from the material by which this coffee table is forged, cast iron.

BRONZE

ROUND TABLE

The BRONZE round table stands alone in celebrating two outstanding materials - bronze and stone. Proven over thousands of years to be of the highest quality, the methods in which we work with bronze have changed only slightly. It is with this appreciation at heart that the BRONZE round table was born.

Simple and fluid, the three legged form defines this iconic collection and ranges from 600mm in diameter, to suit an entrance or hallway, through to 1600mm in diameter, which functions as a large dining table.

ROUND COFFEE TABLE

Undoubtedly the younger sibling, the BRONZE round coffee table has always had a burning desire for attention, though like its older brother is as equally committed to purity. Governed by its respect for form, its unassuming confidence is hard to be ignored and often finds itself the focal point of an interior.

ROUND SIDE TABLE

The MOLECULE round side table is lovingly shy in its temperament and unwaveringly loyal when summoned. It's asymmetrical base modestly puddled beneath acts as the luminary in what is a brilliant rapport between two enduring materials. These objects are an attractive addition either as a lounging accompaniment or a minimal bed side table.

HAWKINS

BED

The HAWKINS bed lives by one golden rule, to treat others how it would like to be treated. The solid American Oak frame and sand cast bronze legs make up the distinguishing trait of the HAWKINS bed. Historians often wonder if this bed would have been the bed of choice for the Ancient Egyptian Pharaohs and their families.
